

Prosser Public Library
Bloomfield, Connecticut

Program Policy

In an extension of its role as a provider of informational, cultural and recreational materials and opportunities, the Prosser Public Library provides programs which draw attention to and promote the resources and services of the Library.

Youth Programs

Programs conducted for infants through teens are essential to the Library's services to them and the adults who work with them. Programming provided by trained librarians for infants through teens facilitates bringing together books and readers. Programs may be arranged and presented by outside professional performers to further enhance the cultural and recreational experiences of children and their families.

Adult Programs

A variety of programming is offered for adults of all ages with priority given to programs that promote reading and literacy, the dissemination of information, and the appreciation of culture and the arts. Programs may be arranged and presented by outside professional performers to enhance the educational, cultural or recreational experiences of the program audience.
